| B. Standard deviation  |   |
|--|---|
|  |   |
|  |   |
|  |   |
|  |   |
|  |   |
|  |   |
| <ul> <li>C. Average deviation</li> </ul>                               |   |
|  |   |
|  |   |
|  |   |
|  |   |
|  |   |
|  |   |
|  |   |
|  |   |
|  |   |
|  |   |
|  |   |
|  |   |
|  |   |
|  |   |
|  |   |
|  |   |
|  |   |
|  |   |
|  |   |
|  |   |
|  |   |
|  |   |
|  |   |
|  |   |
| Use Chebyshev's rule to calculate will be within 3 standard deviations | e the percentage of question II outcomes that s of the mean. Was this prediction correct? |
|  |   |
|  |   |
|  |   |
|  |   |
|  |   |
|  |   |
|  |   |
|  |   |
|  |   |
|  |   |
|  |   |
| A data not of grades is normally dis                                   | stributed and has a mean of 84 and a standard deviati                                     |
| of 4. Calculate a range of grades t                                    | that will include the middle 95.44% of the data set.                                      |